The people we free from the Axis yoke must be fed and helped to feed themselves so that they may become active Allies, fighting side by side with us.

Here's How:

PRODUCE FOOD, where and when you can. Farmers are urged to meet farm goals. City families are urged to plan a larger Victory Garden, to help out on a farm or in a food processing plant if possible.

CONSERVE FOOD. Can and preserve food. Cut waste. Stretch your food supply by substituting plentiful for scarce foods. Balance your meals for good nutrition.

SHARE FOOD. Put the war's food demands first. Share the supplies willingly, with your armed forces, your Allies, your neighbors.

PLAY SQUARE WITH FOOD. Accept no rationed foods without giving up ration stamps. Pay no more than top legal prices under any circumstances.

More Important Than Leros

INSIDE Germany, the defeat of the British Italian garrison on Leros, last of the Dodecanese islands held by the Allies, may not comfort Germans for the native defeat in Russia, but it is a victory—and one that may be important to Germany. They have not had one for a long time.

It is hard to see where they may expect another. While their triumph on Leros demonstrated ability to make power for a small offensive, their strength now is dispersed and opposed too widely for a major thrust. To make it, there would need to be a dangerous weakening of their holding strength at many other points. Certainly if it could be done the time and place would be immediately in Russia. This must be obvious to Germans, themselves, as they hear about the "triumph" on Leros. While it might lead to something more important, for the moment it looks like a party to the opponent's ear which draws blood while the opponent's punches continue to do mighty damage in the German midriff.

The Government Mind at Work

THERE have been many demonstrations recently of the government mind at work on public problems; anyone trying to stay in business could describe a dozen of them offhand without going further into ancient history than a month. This one is especially revealing and it called to attention because it has been made public by a letter from Secretary of Interior Ickes to The New York Herald-Tribune protesting that newspaper's treatment of his part in the recent wage deal with United Mine Workers.

In his letter, the secretary explained that he, as collective bargaining agent for the government, did not grant the miners a $1.50 a day increase of pay in that deal. It was made, he says, within the formula laid down by WLB, "as would seem to be confirmed by the board's approval of it." The board already had granted $1.12½ and the remainder, of 37½ cents, was obtained by the device of cutting the miner's lunch period from 30 to 15 minutes and paying them at prevailing rates for an extra quarter of an hour. Thus, the extent of Mr. Ickes' responsibility, if any, is merely 37½ cents' worth—and even that was confirmed by WLB, after the secretary of the interior had reached an agreement with John L. Lewis.

The Herald Tribune says it thinks "Mr. Ickes could split hairs with us, using an ax for emphasis." Certainly, government by subterfuge is further along as an art than it was before the deal with the miners proved the bureaucratic hand is quicker than the public eye.

Reprisals

THIS government is understandably and properly touchy about anything that might induce reprisal against United States prisoners of Japan. To that end, it is applying certain pressures to the moving picture industry to stop strictly films. The office of censorship seems disposed to suggest deletions of outspoken opinions against Japanese character in newspaper stories submitted for its scrutiny in handling the recent outbreak of trouble in a Japanese internment camp at Tule Lake. Government officials were apprehensive of repercussions at the expense of United States citizens in Japanese camps. Raymond P. Cronin, Associated Press bureau chief in Manila when the war began, has written that before he and other prisoners were sent home on the exchange liner Gripsholm they were given to understand that Japan expected them to be temperate in their statements about their experiences when they returned to the United States.

Reprisals constitute one of the most dirty and hopeless of all war problems. But it may be questioned whether an attitude that makes reprisals on helpless humans possible can be influenced by either tact or appeasement. Any Japanese inclined to commit atrocities would be likely to improve their ethics out of consideration for their nation's reputation abroad, a way beyond redemption. The safety of our citizens remaining in Japan's grasp is worth almost any price, but until their captors have been beaten into submission to the civilization they spurned by going to war in the first place it cannot be assured.

MacArthur's 10 Per Cent

BACK home his courtymen do not understand why Gen. MacArthur feels called on to apologize for his share in the conduct of the war. His latest revelation—that his area is getting "something under 10 per cent" of the material being shipped overseas—is reminiscent of a similar statement many months ago when he discounted in advance his ability to hold, much less push back the Japanese in the South Pacific, with the resources at his command.

Pending elucidation, which won't be coming, we will have to ruminate on a certain similarity between this situation and the story about Abe Lincoln finding out what kind of a whisky Ulysses S. Grant liked, so he could buy some for his other generals. If Gen. MacArthur can keep moving forward against the Japanese in the South Pacific with less than 10 per cent, there must be something about that percentage worth looking into—not that the other generals aren't doing all right, too, but just that they apparently need larger percentages.

"DANCE OF THE HOURS"

From News of Other Years

TEN YEARS AGO

It was Sunday, Nov. 19, 1923. More than 200 Methodist laymen and ministers of the Lima district met in Kenton to discuss church finances and church laws. Dr. George F. Barber of Kenton, district superintendent, was in charge, and the group present included about 25 from Marion.

Elliott Austin Smith, 82, retired New York Central railroad worker and Civil war veteran, died at his home in Bucyrus.

Mayor and Mrs. W. C. Phillips of East Center street visited Mr. and Mrs. Everett Stapp of near Pottersburg in Union county.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond George of near Vinton ended a two-week visit with the latter's mother, Mrs. Emma Heninger of Thompson street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Virden received 175 guests at their home on East Church street in celebration of their sixtieth wedding anniversary.

Fred Shikofsky, 59, died at his home near Green Camp. Mrs. Margaret A. Koon, 72, died at the home of her son, Guy Koon in Cardington.

Mrs. C. L. Rutherford, soprano, and Mrs. Harry T. Williams, organist, were soloists for the first of a series of twilight musicals arranged by the Lecture-Revelation club, given in First Presbyterian church.

More than 200 persons were in Marion for a quarterly Sixth district conference of the American Legion and auxiliary, with Joseph V. Patterson of Findlay, past state commander, as speaker.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

It was Monday, Nov. 19, 1923. The inter-allied council of ambassadors, in session at Paris, proposed a strong joint allied note to Berlin requiring an immediate "yes or no" answer to new demands levied on Germany.

Marion was confronted by a shortage of garbage collectors. Health Officer C. M. Tobin reported.

The Oklahoma senate impeached Governor "Iron Jack" Walton of Oklahoma among an exchange of accusations involving the Ku Klux Klan.

The Mutt and Jeff club held a dance in Schwingler's hall with Mr. and Mrs. Orla Rapp, Dr. and Mrs. Carl W. Sawyer, Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. LaMarche, Mr. and Mrs. F. Mitchell Cleary, E. L. Lee and Henry A. True in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Marshall McKinstry was hostess to the Searchlight club at her home on South Prospect street.

Members of the Woman's club met at the home of Mrs. S. E. Barlow on East Center street.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Gideon Landon of Chestnut street.

The Marion was showing Elmer Clifton's "Down to the Sea in Ships," the "Teddy Bear Girls" were featured at the Orpheum theater and the Grand was running announcement advertisements in preparation for reopening Wednesday with a musical comedy, "Up She Goes," to be presented by a cast that included Gloria Fox. Keith vaudeville was booked for the last three days of each week.

and Lakatia, and the governments of Lebanon and Jebel Ba Druz, French supervision was authorized by mandate, and trouble began. Political unrest flared violently in the Druz rebellion in the Damascus outbreak, and in the constant turmoil over the Arab nationalist movement.

Great Britain occupied Syria and Lebanon in 1941 by arrangement with the Vichy government. The French mandate was then given to British and Free French authorities. Since 1941 the British government has been acting as the guarantor of Lebanon's independence.

WASHINGTON — Within the next few months, maybe, the great air story of this war is going to be written.

In military, naval and aviation circles here, they are positive. Some reasons:

(1) Military experts say that you will hear of bombings of the Axis from western Russia by American air forces almost any week now. While some say this is a result of the Moscow conference, there are indications this plan has been underway for quite a while. If true, the importance can't be overestimated. In spite of Russia's great ground offensive, it hasn't had the bomber strength to disrupt communications and production in eastern Germany. If such a bomber force can be established there in mid-winter, it may be the bundle of straws to break the Nazis' back on the eastern front.

(2) Appointment of Lt. Gen. Carl A. Spaatz as chief of the new all-American air forces in the Mediterranean. Even before this announcement was made, Spaatz's new 15th air force had started battering Wehrmacht and the Messerschmitt assembly plant there. It was probably this raid that forced the army high command to reveal just what was behind it. This marked the beginning of whip-saw bombing. Implied is the fact that the United Nations is now ready to make bombings from England with bombers from the south.

(3) In spite of England's winter weather, there will be terrific raids from the British Isles in coming months. United Nations air forces have now, it is said, so combined their skills that they can take off in Britain's fogs prepared to do either precision or pattern bombing.

(4) In the Pacific, in spite of months of lack of concentration, air victories have been outstanding. These victories, it is said here, are proof that once we settle down to the real business of knocking the Japs out of the air, our successes will stagger them.

THERE are other factors: Losses of German and Japanese planes; damage to German industry (some reports are that one-third of the Nazis' vital oil industry already has been knocked out, for example); increase in American plane production over losses (American plane production has increased more than seven times since we got into the war, and British production has tripled in the same period; Japan's production only slightly ahead of losses).

Some months ago I wrote that the blueprint for a separate air force was on the President's desk. Since then this has been verified in half a dozen ways, but the President, in a letter to congress, made it pretty clear that the steps would be taken gradually.

Gen. Spaatz's new appointment is just one more step in that direction. As the new air power grows itself important this winter, there will be others. By the time this war is over, maybe before, the separate air force will be an accomplished fact. The object now is to attain that end without disrupting existing commands.

"Hero" Joins Ancestors

WASHINGTON — Out in the China-Burma-India area the boys are chuckling over this one.

It's the Associated Press. The Jolly Roger meant the United had sunk an enemy warship. The other flag was a white sheet with a black stork carrying a baby in its beak.

While on patrol, the United's commanding officer, Lt. J. C. Y. Roxburgh, had received word of the safe arrival of a daughter.

After the United picked up enemy survivors, including the commanding officer, the latter's first request to Roxburgh was that his wife be notified of his safety.

His reported loss might affect her condition, he explained, adding: "You see, we are expecting an addition to the family."

Members of the Woman's club met at the home of Mrs. S. E. Barlow on East Center street.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Gideon Landon of Chestnut street.

The Marion was showing Elmer Clifton's "Down to the Sea in Ships," the "Teddy Bear Girls" were featured at the Orpheum theater and the Grand was running announcement advertisements in preparation for reopening Wednesday with a musical comedy, "Up She Goes," to be presented by a cast that included Gloria Fox. Irish Ends Season Undefeated

The year 1943 will never be forgotten in St. Mary High school football annals for it marked the rebirth of the grid sport for the Green and White.

The spunky Irish for the first time in history completed an eight-game season undefeated. Tiffin, Calvert, Crestline, Fostoria St. Wendelin, Lima St. Rose, Marysville and Columbus Linden-McKinley were victims of the team and Richwood and Delaware Willis limited the Marions to scoreless ties.

A great record! But greater still in view of the fact the total male enrollment of St. Mary is less than 60. And 28 of these were members of the unbeaten squad.

To Coach Lane McCrate, who in his first year at the Irish helm gave the school an unbeaten team, and oncoming Irish gridders, the Marion Booster club wishes, "Smooth sailing!"

CITY WIDE RECREATION IS BOOSTER CLUB AIM

Planning for the post-war period when in the future we'll be back to normalcy, the Marion Booster club is patterning for itself a program of service on a community-wide scale.

It is the goal of the reorganizers of the club to enroll hundreds and, if possible, thousands of Marion residents. Now, very much in its infancy, the club numbers less than a hundred, but it is confidently believed that in the not too distant future the membership will be many times its present size.

Because of the fact it is a newly born baby, the club's purposes, aims and objectives are known only to the circle of organizers.

In brief the club is dedicated to the promotion of community recreation. Not only does the club expect to enthusiastically support Marion's two high school athletic teams, but also athletic events staged by the junior high system and other community recreation programs.

One of the primary reasons for the reestablishment of the club is to inaugurate a drive now to provide after the war a completely modern gymnasium and public auditorium. The club feels that a project of this type is one of Marion's greatest needs. Take into consideration the fact that a building of this type would provide suitable and sufficient room for high school and community physical education programs, and also a place for all types of civic programs.

Likewise, the club is highly in favor of the construction of a community swimming pool, the development of city-wide recreation in parks and on the playgrounds, and, in general, all types of recreation activities which will make Marion a better city in which to live in, in which to raise our families.

If you have not already become a member of the Marion Booster club and would like to, attend the next open meeting of the club, date of which will appear in The Star or on Radio Station WMRN.

Crop Plan Substitute Sought by Grange

By The Associated Press
GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Nov. 19—A crop adjustment substitute for the Agricultural Adjustment Agency was sought today by the National Grange.

Closing its 77th annual convention, the farm organization adopted a resolution to urge enactment of the present AAA for engaging in "bureaucratic and undesirable political acts."

The Grange executive committee was instructed to "study the problem of developing some method of effecting practical crop adjustment without drains on the treasury."

The convention stating agricultural program to which it could turn in the past was not to a same equitable features, expressed opposition to the AAA and urged farmers to take action to return in next year's harvest or subsidies, either in wartime or in normal times.

Mayor To Order Arrest of Fight Promoters

By The Associated Press
ANN ARBOR, O., Nov. 19—Mayor George J. Harter said he would order the arrest today of the promoters of a boxing show, the army last night on the grounds of a state law prohibiting prize fighting without consent of the mayor.

Former Ziv of Pittsburgh, former water weight champion, was scheduled to meet George "Red" Daly at Hartford, Conn., in the main event, but Dr. William Canale of the Aven boxing commission refused to permit Ziv to fight because of a cut over the left eye. The fighter refused to fight while losing a decision to Jake LaMotta in Madison Square garden last Friday night.

Franklin W. of Washington, D. C., filed in as a substitute and won a decision over Daly with Ziv serving as referee.

Mayor Harter evoked the permit for the show yesterday morning but it was not issued. The Rubber City Club obtained a court injunction restraining the city from stopping the fight.

Committee Approval Given 8-Cent Pay Raise

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, Nov. 19—A senate interstate commerce subcommittee yesterday tentatively approved the Truman resolution endorsing a flat eight cents an hour pay boost for 1,100,000 non-operating railway employees—a boost which economic stabilization director Vinson has vetoed.

Senator Johnson (D-Colo.), subcommittee chairman, predicted formal approval.

Acting in the wake of Vinson's statement, congress would be cracking the little steel wage formula if it adopted the resolution, the subcommittee informally agreed to make the resolution, by Senator Truman (D-Mo.), even more positive in its declaration for the eight-cent pay raise.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 19—The failure so far of foreign malaria to spread to the American civilian population even though several thousand malarious troops have been brought home for hospitalization offers evidence war-born control measures eventually can banish the disease as a problem in the United States.

This was the prediction today of Brig. Gen. James S. Simmons, chief of the Army's preventive medicine division, who said wartime programs instituted by the armed forces, the U. S. public health service and other agencies could achieve that objective if coordinated into a single national program that would be carried on after the war.

The general said the programs now in effect ranged from establishing virtually mosquito-free "safety zones" around military posts and hospitals to the training of hundreds of civilian doctors to cope with malaria in case of relapses among cured troops.

"Since the war began, the people at home have been fearing the spectre of malaria brought back by troops," he said in an interview before he delivered the presidential address to the national malaria society, "but there has been no evidence so far that the disease brought back by several thousand troops in the Army alone has spread to the civilian population."

"This is one proof of the effectiveness of hospital quarantine and the control measures inaugurated around hospitals and camps to kill the mosquitoes that spread the disease."

"The fact that malaria incidence rate among our troops remaining in the continental United States is the lowest in the history of the Army is proof that large masses of people can be protected in this country."

He said war-developed mosquito repellents and sprays and gases capable of killing the insects were doing much to protect the troops.

"These protective elements are now limited to the armed forces," he said, "but when they become available to everyone after the war, they will represent the biggest contribution of the medical department to the people—a contribution even greater than blood plasma."

"It is my belief," he told the society, "that it is possible to make the United States a malaria-free country, one which will exemplify to other countries what can be accomplished in the eradication of one of the world's most serious diseases."

BRICKER NAMES JUDGE

By The Associated Press
COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 19—Gov. Bricker today appointed Arden Lea, Warren attorney, as common pleas judge of Trumbull county.

Native of Lima

He was born March 8, 1863, in Lima to John Newton and Laura Marshall Cunningham. Mr. Cunningham's middle name was Marshall. He was married June 1, 1904, to Marion De Wolfe, who died April 12, 1919.

Surviving are two sons, Cpl. Newton D. Cunningham, who is stationed with the Army overseas, and Theodore W. Cunningham of Lakewood, and one daughter, Mrs. Marion Cheney, at home. One daughter, Elizabeth, preceded her father in death.

Funeral services will be held Monday at 2:30 p. m. in the First Presbyterian church with Rev. H. L. Oldewill, pastor, and Rev. Donald Mitchell of Cincinnati officiating. Burial will be made in the Ma on cemetery.

Funerals may call at the home on Chicago avenue after 7 o'clock and until 11 a. m. Monday, and from then until service time at the church.

ingham enough business to keep him busy for several years. For some time he was employed by the water company to connect curbside taps with water mains and by private citizens to install and connect bath tubs and sinks.

Sanitary toilets did not come along for several years later when the city's sanitary sewers were built.

The partnership of Cunningham & Stowe continued until around the turn of the century when it was dissolved and Mr. Stowe returned to his home in Cleveland.

On Old Y Grid Team

Mr. Cunningham was a member of a Y.M.C.A. football team which was the city's first sizeable independent team. Also he was a considerable prominence in his early days as a boxer. He and his partner, the late Mr. Stowe, gave a number of exhibitions in Marion and surrounding towns.

He was also active in Y.M.C.A. baseball, tennis and volleyball. Up until the last year or two he was a familiar figure on the Y.M.C.A. tennis courts. He was forced to give up active tennis because of unusually heavy blunting at his work and because of eye trouble.

He was also active in Marion music circles, having been a member of the old Grange Opera house orchestra, later the Marion civic orchestra and at one time the Maunfield Symphony orchestra.

He was also member of the First Presbyterian church, a charter member of the Knights of Pythias and honorary life member of the Marion Elks Lodge, Lodge No. 70 F. & A. M. and the Tallywag club.

DE MARIGNY FINED ON GASOLINE CHARGE

By The Associated Press
NASSAU, BAHAMAS, Nov. 19—Alfred De Marigny, a wealthy father-in-law, was fined today a $100 (about $420) fine—or a three-month prison sentence if he fails to pay it—for illegal possession of gasoline.

His close friend, Major Georges De Viedel, was charged the same amount and paid immediately, but De Marigny filed notice of appeal.

Magistrate F. E. Field said the only reason he did not sentence the two men to prison is because he might thus have delayed the deportation.

The jury which freed De Marigny of the charge that he had ordered Sir Harry Oakes, a wealthy father-in-law, to be deported immediately, recommended he be deported immediately.

The governor-in-council, naming executive group of the island, formally invited both De Marigny and De Viedel to leave.

De Marigny and De Viedel were charged with possession of gasoline believed stolen and with obtaining gasoline from other than official sources.

would be understood to have the governor's approval.

Indicating the state committee was hopeful of avoiding a contest for the gubernatorial nomination, which Bricker has announced he will not ask—came from Schorr. He said if there was any possibility of widespread agreement throughout the state, the committee will go further in its endorsement of candidates at another meeting to be held soon.

Committee Approval Given 8-Cent Pay Raise

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, Nov. 19—A senate interstate commerce subcommittee yesterday tentatively approved the Truman resolution endorsing a flat eight cents an hour pay boost for 1,100,000 non-operating railway employees—a boost which economic stabilization director Vinson has vetoed.

Senator Johnson (D-Colo.), subcommittee chairman, predicted formal approval.

Acting in the wake of Vinson's statement, congress would be cracking the little steel wage formula if it adopted the resolution, the subcommittee informally agreed to make the resolution, by Senator Truman (D-Mo.), even more positive in its declaration for the eight-cent pay raise.

Turk Ambassador To Berlin Returns Home

By The Associated Press
ANKARA, Nov. 18—(Delayed)—The Turkish ambassador to Berlin returned to confer with his government today on conditions in Germany as the Istanbul news-papers published an editorial which appeared to be a preliminary step to prepare the Turkish people for eventual war against the axis.

The Turkish diplomat, Saffet Arkan, returned while Franz von Papen, German ambassador to Turkey, was conferring with Adolf Hitler in Germany—presumably about the allied Moscow conferences and European conditions in general.

Tania has been maintaining an independent course and it is commented therefore could not be considered a government line. Nevertheless importance was attached to its assertion that Turkish foreign minister Numan Menemencioglu's recent talks with British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden in Cairo were "obviously not merely informative."

SERVICE CANCELED
